JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE

YEAR 1910.

PART II.—CIVIL STATISTICS.

REPORT

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,

&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

I have the honour of submitting my Report on the Judicial Statistics (Civil) of Ireland for the year 1910. This Report is compiled from the Tables which commence at page 32 of this volume, and reviews the business of the Courts of Civil Jurisdiction in Ireland for the year 1910.

There exist in Ireland two primary divisions of Courts and Offices, namely:—
(a) those relating to the Central Administration of Justice, and (b) those relating to the Local Administration of Justice, the latter being grouped into the larger and smaller District Administration of Justice according to the nature and extent of the special jurisdiction.

Arrangement of Tables.

I.—CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

The Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland includes the High Court of Justice and His Majesty's Court of Appeal.

The Chancery and King's Bench Divisions and the Court of the Irish Land Commission constitute the High Court of Justice in Ireland. The Courts of Exchequer, Common Pleas, the Probate and Matrimonial Courts, the High Court of Admiralty, and the Court of Bankruptcy were merged with the Court of the then Queen's Bench, under the Irish Judicature Acts.

Central Administration of Justice

The Central Appellate Jurisdiction includes His Majesty's Court of Appeal (Ireland), the House of Lords in England, and the Privy Council in Ireland. The Court for Crown Cases Reserved may be grouped along with the other

Central
Administration
of Justice.

Central Jurisdictions, as being closely connected with them. It may be seen in Table 9, Part I., Criminal Statistics, that during the year 1910 there was one case before the Court for Crown Cases Reserved, which resulted in a conviction and sentence for murder being confirmed.

Chancery
Division.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE—CHANCERY DIVISION.

The Court business in the Chancery Division during the years 1909 and 1910 is shown in the following summary with the increase or decrease under each head in the latter year.

* See notes Table I., page 32.

In Table I. it may be seen that there were 38 Side Bar Orders in the office of the Registrars of the Chancery Division in 1910; in 1909 these Orders numbered 41.

There were 5 appeals filed from the County Court equitable jurisdiction up to £500 property and £30 a year in land, in addition to 2 which were pending at the end of the year 1909. Of these one was argued before the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Ross, and one before the Hon. Mr. Justice Barton; of the appeals, one was affirmed, one was dismissed with costs, two were struck out, and there were three appeals pending at the close of the year 1910.

The figures in the above statement when examined show that there was a total decrease of £128,468 in the amount of property passed in accounts in the year 1910, following a decrease of £218,639 in the year 1909, as compared with the year 1908.

The Wards of Court in the Chambers of the Lord Chancellor at the close of the year numbered 907. The new Minor or Infancy Matters in the year were 15, relating to 37 Wards, as compared with 21 new Matters and 41 new Wards in 1909.

Table 4.*

Embodied in Table 4 is a return made by the Clerk of Judgments, Records and Writs. From this it appears that there were 469 actions by writ of summons, being 15 under the number in 1909, but 3 over that for 1908. The proportion of lower scale to higher scale was as 13 to 87 per cent. The originating summonses (659) were 42 over the summonses filed in 1909. In the Notice Department there were 8,692 original documents, or 924 less than the number in 1909 and 799 less than the number for 1908; there were 26,145 copies, being 4,610 under the number in 1909, and 5,539 less than the number for 1908.

*Lord Chancellor's
Secretary.
Table 5.*

The Lord Chancellor made 18 Orders on Petitions as to Commissioners for administering oaths for the High Court of Justice, the same number being made in the year 1909. There was one Order on Petition as to Notaries, and there were 14 Orders as to other Petitions, including minor Petitions. Warrants for Commissions of the Peace numbered 325, as compared with 257 in 1909, and 359 in 1908. As in the year 1909 there were no warrants as to Coroners.

*Secretary
at the Rolls.
Table 5.*

As returned by the Secretary of the Master of the Rolls, the Petitions set down for hearing before the Master of the Rolls (included in Table 5) numbered 19, of which 18 were on the higher scale and one was on the lower scale.

*Crown and Hanaper
Office.
Table 6.*

From a return made by the Clerk of the Crown and Hanaper Office, it appears that the proceedings for the year 1910 numbered 2,625; this number is an increase of 239 as compared with that for the year 1909.

LAND JUDGE.

*Land Judge
Registrar's Returns.
Table 8.*

It appears from Table 8, supplied by the Registrar, that in the year ended 1st November, 1910, the gross annual value of Estates sold under the Land Judge was £12,457, and the amount of purchase-money of such Estates was £217,637 Cash. In the year 1909, the gross annual value of the Estates sold was £16,822, and the amount of purchase-money for such Estates was £336,172. These sums are the proceeds of the sale of Estates of various classes, that is to say:—Estates which the owner in the matter held in fee-simple or in which he had only a life estate, or other terminable interest, the purchase-moneys in such cases only representing the value of the owner's interest. A large proportion of the Estates were, however, sold to the occupying tenants, and in these cases the purchase-moneys include not only the value of the owner's interest in the estate, but the value of the superior interests which, under the Land Purchase Acts, it is necessary to redeem so as to vest the fee-simple in the tenants.

The number of Matters in reference to which proceedings were originated before the Land Judge during the year by Petition or statements of facts was 30, being 14 under the number originated in the year ending 1st November, 1909.

*Room and Affidavit
Office.
Table 7.*

In Table 7, The Registrar reports that in the year ended 31st October, 1910, there were 26 petitions filed, being 13 under the number in 1909, and 17 under that for 1908. Of the total 9 were by owners. The number of affidavits filed (766) is 358 under that for 1909, and 476 below the number for 1908.

*Keeper of Deeds.
Table 9.*

From a return of proceedings made by the Keeper of Deeds it appears that in the year ended 1st November, 1910, there were 19 abstracts of title lodged, or 9 less than the number lodged in the preceding year. The number of deeds or other documents lodged was 762; in 1909 the corresponding number was 1,666.

KING'S BENCH DIVISION.

*Business in King's Bench
Division.
Tables 10,
11, 12, 13,
and 14.*

The information contained in Table 10 has been supplied by three officials, namely—the Master of the Court, the Registrar, and the Clerk of Judgments, Records and Writs. The Table contains a return of the proceedings at the Plea side of the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice, and is arranged by quarterly divisions in a single table.

In the period under review the number of writs of summons issued was 14,540, showing a decline from 15,020 in the year 1909, and from 15,960 in the year 1908. The number of cases which actually came to trial by jury in Dublin in 1910 was 202, being 77 under the number in 1909, which was 67 over the number in 1908; the amount of money recovered at these trials, which was £38,279 in 1908, was £26,480 in the year 1909, and £14,065 in the year under notice.

*Central
of Justice.
King's Bench
Division.*

Included in the business in the Division on the Plea side there were 13,619 affidavits, a decrease of 1,485 as compared with the number in the year 1909, which was 223 over the number for the year 1908.

It appears from Table 12, in a Return made by the Registrar of the proceedings at Chambers and before a single Judge in Court, that the number of summonses in 1910 was 206, being 20 over the number in 1909; the number of motions on notice before a single Judge was 880, or 20 above that for the year 1909, and 172 above the number for the year 1908, and the ex parte motions (including consent orders) granted were 1,173, or 302 under the number in 1909.

Particulars of Appeals from the Courts of the Honourable the Recorder of the City and Chairman of Quarter Sessions for the County of Dublin (as supplied by the Associate), entered for hearing before a Single Judge of the Supreme Court in each of the years 1909 and 1910, are shown in the following statement:—

The proceedings other than causes entered for Jury Trial have been returned by the Clerk, at the Crown side of the King's Bench for the year 1910. See Table 17 (a).

There were two returns of proceedings as to Election Petitions lodged made by the Master of the King's Bench Division.

There were no acknowledgments by married women filed during the year 1910. Under the provisions of the Conveyancing Act, 1882 (45 & 46 Vic., cap 39, sec. 7), no Certificates and Affidavits of Acknowledgment are filed, save such as relate to Deeds executed before the commencement of the Act.

No Perpetual Commissioners were appointed in 1910. With the exception of 2 appointed in 1908, only one such appointment has been made since the year 1902—namely, that in the year 1906. There were 4 Special Commissions granted in 1910, the number of Special Commissions granted in 1909 being 5.

The number of Lis Pendens registered, which were 1,273 in the year 1908, rose to 1,291 in the year 1909, and further rose to 1,595 in the year under notice.

When the number of executions issued on judgments in the King's Bench Division, as given in Table 10, is compared with the number of judgments which were registered in the Registry of Judgments, it appears that the figure representing the executions issued was 4,604, and that representing the judgments registered was 2,861, as compared with 4,771 judgment executions issued, and 3,216 judgments registered, in the year 1909.

The proceedings in the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Office, under the Act of 1891, for the year 1910 in Table 22 (a), show that there were 127 applications for the first registration, viz.:—102 compulsory, and 25 voluntary, and 16,471 cases were lodged by the Irish Land Commission under Section 23 (1) (b), the number of the latter cases in 1909 being 15,119.

From Table 48 it appears that traverses under the Railway Acts numbered 3, there having been 7 in the preceding year, and 19 in the year 1908. There were no tramway traverses under Tramway Acts during the year 1910. There were no traverses other than a railway or tramway traverse under the Grand Jury Acts or other Acts in the year 1910.

Orders made in County Court Lunacy Cases under the jurisdiction conferred by the Lunacy Act of 1890 were 98 in number as compared with 93 in the year preceding.

The numbers of ejectments executed by Sheriffs and Special Bailiffs according as they refer to the High Court of Justice or the County Court is shown by Provinces in the following table:—

The total number of County Court ejectments of all classes for Ireland was 1,037, being 20 over that for the year 1909. The number for each of the years 1901 to 1908 is:—for the year 1901, 1,293; 1902, 1,254; 1903, 1,186; 1904, 1,332; 1905, 1,047; 1906, 1,110; for 1907, 1,023, and for 1908, 1,135.

A return appears in table 54 giving the nature and amount of claim, and the amount of compensation granted for Malicious Injuries under Section 5 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1896. From this it appears that for the year 1910 there were 832 claims for Malicious Injuries, viz., one for Malicious Injury to the Person and 831 to Property (including 38 cases pending at the beginning of the year). In the year 1909 there were 1,028 claims, and in the year 1908 the claims numbered 832.

The one claim for Malicious Injury to the person for hearing was in the Province of Munster.

The claims for Malicious Injuries to Property were distributed as follows:—159 in Leinster, 256 in Munster, 329 in Ulster, and 107 in Connaught.

The number of Decrees, and the number of Dismissals, in the cases which were heard during the year 1910 are shown in the following tabular statement:—

	Decrees.			Dismissals.
	Person.	Property.	Total.	Person.	Property.	Total.
Leinster, . . .	—	102	102	—	32	32
Munster, . . .	1	176	177	—	78	78
Ulster, . . .	—	226	226	—	71	71
Connaught, . .	—	63	63	—	30	30
Total. . .	1	567	568	—	191	191

The foregoing statement shows that 568 Decrees were obtained during the year 1910, and that 191 Claims were dismissed. In the year 1909 the Decrees obtained numbered 708, and the Claims dismissed, 217.

During the year 1910, 60 Claims were disposed of, otherwise than by Decree or Dismissal, and 33 were pending at the close of the year. The corresponding numbers in the year 1909 were 71 cases so disposed of and 32 pending.

The total amount claimed in cases in which Decrees were made and the amount of compensation granted by the County Court is given in the following summary:—

	Injuries to Person.		Injuries to Property.
	Claimed.	Granted.	Claimed.	Granted.
Leinster, . . .	£ —	£ —	£ 4,987	2,583
Munster, . . .	800	240	6,667	3,077

Connaught, . .	—	—	2,412	1,320
Total, . . .	800	240	17,287	9,549

The above statement shows that for the year 1910 in one case of Malicious Injury to the Person in which a Decree was made, out of a total of £800 claimed, the grant of compensation amounted to £240, and in cases of Malicious Injury to Property in which Decrees were made, out of a total of £17,287 claimed, the grants amounted to £9,549, as against a total of £27,954 claimed in the year 1909 and £13,768 granted.

The amounts claimed in the cases of Injury to Property which were dismissed, were, in Leinster, £2,372; Munster, £3,825; Ulster, £2,893; and in Connaught, £845, making a total for Ireland of £9,935.

The results of the proceedings on Circuit, as to Appeals from County Court Judges and Recorders in respect of claims for Malicious Injury under Section 5 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1896, in the year 1910 may be seen in Table 49 (pages 70-3), and are referred to on page 21.

The number of Eviction Notices filed during the year 1910, under Section 7 of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1887, was 1,109, being 302 under the number (1,471) in the year 1909. The corresponding figures for the years 1903-1908 are as follow:—

1903,	2,257	1905,	2,221	1907,	1,602
1904,	2,414	1906,	2,191	1908,	1,591

Of the 1,109 notices in 1910, 36 were filed in the King's Bench Division, and 1,073 in County Courts.

In the aggregate the number of Civil Bill decrees and dismissals returned as executed in the year 1910 was 20,581. Of this figure 16,216 were executed by Sheriffs and 4,365 by Special Bailiffs; in the year 1909 the number was 23,096, of which 17,937 were executed by Sheriffs, and 5,159 by Special Bailiffs; in the year 1908 the number was 22,933, of which 17,994 were executed by Sheriffs, and 4,939 by Special Bailiffs; in the year 1907 the number was 21,157, of which 16,704 were executed by Sheriffs, and 4,453 by Special Bailiffs; and in the year 1906 the number was 20,489, of which 15,930 were executed by Sheriffs, and 4,559 by Special Bailiffs.

As returned by the Clerks of Petty Sessions, it appears from Table 50 that warrants to Special Bailiffs under Act 23 & 24 Vic., c. 154 (summary recovery of possession of tenements), numbered 741 in 1910, having been 650 in 1909. The warrants to Special Bailiffs under 14 & 15 Vic., cap. 92, s. 15 (summary recovery of possession of tenements, overholding in towns), numbered 13,068, being a decrease of 6,246 as compared with the number in 1909, which was 597 under that for the year 1908.

The following summary shows the Returns of Sheriffs as to execution of ejectments, classed so as to distinguish the ejectments for non-payment of rent from other ejectments, for the years 1909 and 1910:—

The proceedings at Land Sessions, under the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1870, is shown in the following comparative summary for the years 1909 and 1910:—

CASES DISPOSED OF AT LAND SESSIONS.	1909.	1910.	Increase in 1910.	Decrease in 1910.

From the summary at foot of page 24, it appears that there were 7 cases for disposal in the year 1910, being an increase of one as compared with the year 1909, and 3 over the number in 1908.

There were decrees in 2 of the cases entered, lodged or pending in 1910; 2 were dismissed, one otherwise disposed of, and 2 cases were pending at the end of the year 1910.

In the 2 land claim cases in which there were decrees in 1910 the total amount claimed was £2,888, and the total amount decreed without deducting allowances for set-off to Landlord for dilapidation, rent, etc., was £1,050. The cases in which decrees were made in the year 1910 consisted of one in the Province of Munster, and one in Ulster.

The tabular statements preceding show that "judicial rents" were fixed in 2,055 first statutory term cases (1,478 in court and 577 out of court), and 1,667 second statutory term cases (1,243 in court and 424 out of court), the "former rent" of the holdings dealt with in the first statutory term cases being £33,068, and the judicial rents registered by the Court £26,035, showing a reduction of £7,003, or 21·2 per cent. of the "former rent," as compared with a reduction of 22·5 per cent. in the year 1909. The amount of the first statutory term judicial rents in the cases in which second term rents were fixed was £26,474, which was reduced to a judicial rent of £21,959 for the second statutory term, showing a reduction of £4,515, or 17·1 per cent. of the judicial rent for the first statutory term, in comparison with a reduction of 18·8 per cent. in the year 1909. Some of the "judicial rents" referred to are liable to variation on appeal.

The appeals from the Land Commission to the Court of Appeal, and how these were disposed of, are given in Table 39. They are also referred to at page 18 under the head of Appellate Jurisdiction.

In Table 62 a Return of Advances made to Tenants under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Acts, 1891 and 1896, is furnished, in which the Advances (Guaranteed Land Stock) were issued during the years ended 31st December, 1909, and 31st December, 1910. During the year 1910, the amount of Advances made (Guaranteed Land Stock) was £2,980, the Purchase money agreed on being £2,980, and the number of Tenant Purchasers five.

A Return of Proceedings under the Irish Land Acts, 1903-9, for the year 1910, is contained in Table 63. This table consists of three divisions, namely:—(1) which deals with Advances made by the Land Commission other than those made by the Estates Commissioners, (2) which deals with Advances made by the Estates Commissioners; these are sub-divided under four heads (a), (b), (c), and (d), and (3) deals with the return of Advances made for the purchase of estates by the Congested Districts Board under Sections 77 and 79 of the Irish Land Act, 1903, and on the re-sale of estates bought under those sections during the years ended 31st December, 1909, and 31st December, 1910. It appears from the First Division of Table 63 (1), that in the year 1910 the amount of Advances made was £216,060, the amount of the Purchase Money agreed upon £216,723, and the number of Tenant Purchasers 1,382.

These Advances amounted in the year 1909 to £4,980,262, and in the year 1910 to £4,241,788. Tabular Statement (b) gives a Return of Advances made by the Estates Commissioners for the Purchase and Re-sale of Estates under Sections 6 and 8 of the Irish Land Act, 1903, during the years 1909 and 1910. In the year 1909 the Advances for Purchase amounted to £1,093,162 and the Advances for Re-sale to £326,755, the figures for 1910 being for Purchase, £447,128, and for Re-sale, £602,517. Tabular Statement (c) contains a Return of Advances made by the Estates Commissioners during the years 1909 and 1910 for the Purchase of Estates in the Court of the Land Judge under Section 7 of the Act. These Advances amounted in 1909 to £151,191 and the Re-sales to £39,587, and in 1910 to £109,819 and £136,097 for Re-sales.

Tabular Statement (d) of this table deals with Advances made for the Purchase and Re-sale of Estates under the Evicted Tenants (Ireland) Act, 1907, during the years ending 31st December, 1909, and 31st December, 1910. In the year 1909 the amount advanced was £203,533, and the Estates numbered 63, and in the year under notice the corresponding figures were £21,306 and the number of Estates 14.

In the Third Division of Table 63 a Return of the Advances made for the purposes of the Congested Districts Board is given. The total of these advances for the year 1909 was £138,766, and in 1910 it was £268,533. It also contains the Purchase and Re-sales by the Congested Districts Board under the Irish Land Act, 1903.

PROCEEDINGS OF SHERIFFS.

Information regarding the proceedings of Sheriffs during their year of office, 1909-10, is given in Tables 56 and 58, including those having relation to Jurors summoned and those already referred to on pages 22 and 24.

Proceedings of Sheriffs.

JURORS.

The Lists furnished by Clerks of Unions contained in the year 1910 the names of 159,393 Jurors for the whole of Ireland. Of these, 60,784, or 38.1 per cent., were struck off; and 15 persons added by the Revision Court, 12 being in the City of Dublin and 3 in the County of Dublin.

In addition to the Jurors who were struck off by the Revision Court there were 27 Jurors exempted by Clerks of the Peace and no Jurors were struck off Book by Judges. This gives the total number of Jurors on the corrected General Jurors' Books for 1911 (when handed to the Sheriffs) in all Ireland as 98,297, of whom 60,088 were on rated qualification, 34,221 were £10 free-holders (in the preceding year the number was 32,170), 3,355 were £20 Leaseholders, 602 Directors or Managers of Public Companies, and 31 Harbour Commissioners.

Local Administration
Justice.

From the Special Jurors Lists prepared in 1910 it appears that of 15,519 persons 4,683 were struck off by Revision Court, 100 were exempted by the Clerks of the Peace, and 221 persons were added by Revision Court, so that there was a net reduction of 4,562, or 29.4 per cent. When handed to the Sheriffs the books showed 10,957 Special Jurors.

Jurors
Table 58.

Information regarding the proceedings of Sheriffs in summoning Jurors is contained in Table 58, from which it appears that the total number of Jurors summoned in the year numbered 42,054, as compared with 42,997 in 1909. Of the number for 1910, 4,424 were Grand Jurors* for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 8,232 were Grand Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 816* were Special Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 12,612 were Petit and Common Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 14,260 were Petit Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 1,551 were Jurors in Civil Bill cases before County Court Judges or Recorders; and there were 150 Jurors for other purposes summoned.

Appeals
from Magistrates at Quarter Sessions.
Table 60.

The following summary shows the number of Appeals from Magistrates at Quarter Sessions for the year 1910, compared with the number in 1909:—

APPEALS AT QUARTER SESSIONS.	1909.	1910.	Increase, 1910.	Decrease, 1909.
Appeals from Magistrates:—
Affirmed,	129	133	4	—

Varied,	69	41	—	28
Otherwise disposed of (including cases in which there was no appearance),	74	99	25	—
Total,	391	384	—	7

From above it appears that the number of appeals from Magistrates heard at Quarter Sessions was 7 below the number in 1909, the number for which year was 50 below that for 1908. Of the appeals heard and decided in Court during 1910, in 133 cases the previous decisions were affirmed, in 111 reversed, in 41 varied, and in 99 "otherwise disposed of" (including cases in which there was no appearance).

SPIRIT LICENCES.

Spirit

In Table 60 information is also furnished regarding the number of licences granted at Quarter Sessions and the Annual Licensing Sessions. In the year under notice the total number was 2,054. Of this total, 157 were granted or confirmed on original application at Annual Licensing Sessions, 767 were granted at other Quarter Sessions, and 1,130 were granted or confirmed on application for transfer at the Annual Licensing Sessions; the corresponding figures in the year 1909 were 201, 865, and 1,190 respectively.

* Special Jurors are included with Grand Jurors in the case of Dublin County and Dublin City.

PETTY SESSIONS COURTS.

The Civil proceedings at the Courts of Petty Sessions are shown in Table 59 in the Appendix. The total summonses issued were 110,564, being 2,984 below the number for the preceding year.

The following tabular statement shows the number of occasions, on which, in consequence of the non-attendance of Magistrates, Petty Sessions were not held. This number (233), as compared with 12,140 sittings of Petty Sessions Courts other than the Dublin Police Courts, gives a proportion of 1.9 per cent.; this proportion is, however, not uniformly distributed, and reaches 3.2 per cent. in the province of Connaught, as appears from the following table:—

* This deficiency consists of Cash and New Control appropriated out of the Funds in Court, under the authority of various Acts of Parliament, and of a loan of £27,100 10s. 11d. arising from a deficiency in the accounts of a former Master of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, provided for by Act 25 & 26 Geo. The Consolidated Fund is liable on the account of the deficiency, in the event of the funds in Court being at any time insufficient to meet payments to annuities.

† This deficiency, which is recovered by any formal liability of the Consolidated Fund, is the result of a fresh payment of £7 2s. 10d. inadvertently made in 1877 by a former Master of the King's Bench Division, and an overpayment of one shilling in 1877, and one penny expenses, Chancery Division.

In having applied to quash the conviction on a petition on the ground of insufficiency of evidence.	Held by Court that conviction being regular, and following the Statutory form, could not be quashed on such ground as the evidence could not be examined. JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND FOR THE YEAR 1910.

PART I.—CRIMINAL STATISTICS.

REPORT

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,
&c., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

I.—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

The Report on the Judicial Statistics of Ireland, Vol. I. (Criminal), for the year 1910, which I now have the honour of submitting for Your Excellency's consideration, contains four maps which show quinquennial averages for certain classes of crime by the Counties of Ireland. Three new tables have also been introduced into the Report—(1) Tables 27-28, which show the cases dealt with in the Children's Court, and classification of children in places of detention, and (2) Table 44, which gives the admissions and discharges of inmates of Clonmel Borstal Institution for the year 1910. The tables dealing with Reformatory and Industrial Schools have been recast in the Report for the year 1910.*

*Introductory
Remarks.*

The classification of crimes into those which are indictable and those that are non-indictable is adopted in this Report. The indictable offences are classified in six divisions as follows:—

Classification of offences.

- Class I.—Offences against the person.
- .. II.—Offences against property with violence.
- .. III.—Offences against property without violence.
- .. IV.—Malicious injuries to property.
- .. V.—Forgery and offences against the currency.
- .. VI.—Other offences not included in the above classes.

The non-indictable offences are classified, as far as possible, according to their character or in reference to the Statutes under which they become amenable to the law. The figures relating to non-indictable offences are shown in the tables relating to the criminal business in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, in which the cases summarily disposed of are classified under the following headings:—

- A.—Indictable offences disposed of summarily.
- B.—Other offences disposed of summarily.

Although classed as offences, many of the minor cases in Section B partake more of a civil than a criminal character.

In addition to the cases disposed of by summary jurisdiction, a large number of cases are disposed of summarily which are known as quasi-criminal cases. These are not included in the tables relating to criminal offences, but have a special table allotted to them. The more numerous matters in which

*These Schedules, showing in detail alterations in classification introduced in the year 1886, will be found on pages 12-15 of the Criminal Statistics for that year.

I.—Introductory Remarks.

applications for orders were instituted in the year 1910 in quasi-criminal cases were as follows:—

1. Dogs, Licences for.
2. Children { (a) Attendance orders under Education Act.
(b) Committed to Industrial Schools.
3. Sureties.
4. Sanitary Law.
5. Goods Stolen (Restoration of).
6. Maintenance.
7. Dangerous and Neglected Structures (Orders relating to).

Quasi-criminal cases.

The state of crime in Ireland and the proceedings in Criminal Courts are shown in the comparative tables on pages xxxvi-xlvi, for each of the twenty years 1891-1910; quinquennial averages under each head are also given.

Comparative Tables.

The Summary Tables A, B, and C, contain these comparisons and refer, respectively, to the number of persons for trial at Assizes and Quarter Sessions; cases dealt with in Courts of Summary Jurisdiction; and all offences of an indictable character reported to the police. Table D gives a summary of Tables A, B, and C under condensed headings of the averages for each quinquennium and for the year 1910 only. In Table E (Parts I. and II.), which follows, the geographical distribution of crime and of the principal forms thereof, during the last quinquennial period, is shown by the rates of crimes to population in each county in Ireland. Part I. of this Table gives this information regarding the counties grouped according to their several degrees of criminality, under each of the selected heads, and Part II. shows the counties arranged in alphabetical order by provinces.

Certain illustrative Maps have been appended to this Report.

The Maps show the distribution of crime by counties. Each Map has an explanatory table attached showing the number and distribution of the crimes denoted in the Map. Map I. shows the distribution of crimes against property included in Classes II., III., IV., and V. Map II. demonstrates the distribution of crimes of violence against the person. Map III. gives the distribution of crimes against morals. Map IV., which deals with the distribution of drunkenness, is constructed on the same principles as Map III., and here again the figures in the explanatory table correspond with those in Table E.

II.—GENERAL REVIEW.

II.—General Review.

In the year 1910, the number of indictable offences* reported to the police in Ireland was 9,870, compared with 9,873 in 1909, and 10,268 in the year 1908. These figures correspond to the rates of 2.26, 2.26, and 2.35 per 1,000 of the population, respectively. The indictable offences are less by 3 than those reported in the year 1909, and by 398 of the indictable offences in 1908, the latter figure representing a percentage decrease of 3.9 in 1910 when compared with the year 1908. With reference to the persons tried for non-indictable offences in the year under notice, the number fell from 201,694 in 1909 to 193,635 in 1910.† There was a decrease of 4,426 in the number of persons tried for drunkenness in 1910 as compared with the preceding year, and compared with the average for the 10 years, 1900 to 1909, there was a decrease of 17,819 persons tried for this offence.

Standards by which to measure prevalence of crime.

Many of the non-indictable offences being in the nature of civil offences, are omitted in the calculation of the amount of crime in the country, the number of "indictable offences" only being adopted as the standard for estimation. Besides, cases obviously of a civil character—such as those in which orders are made to maintain certain civil rights, or to secure the discharge

* See Note (*), pp. xxviii—lx.

† A remarkable increase is observable in the number of prosecutions against owners and drivers of cars under the Highway Act—the number of persons proceeded against in the years 1910, 1909 and 1908 being 26,351, 20,546 and 21,529, respectively, as against 4,526 in the year 1897.

of civil duties—are now shown separately under the title of Quasi-Criminal Offences (Table 17). These offences, which in the year 1909 amounted to 25,148, decreased in the year 1910 to 24,653. Prior to 1895 the majority of such cases were found among "Cases disposed of Summarily," and were included in "Minor Offences" in the reports under the old system. Proceedings against weekly tenants in towns, which are especially numerous in Dublin, formed another group of the cases "Disposed of Summarily." These appeared both in the Civil and the Criminal statistics; they are now separated from the Criminal statistics proper. As they tended to increase the number of apparent crimes committed, they must be allowed for when instituting comparisons with the statistics for years anterior to 1895.

II.—
General
Review.

The number of the serious and the minor offences in each of the years 1909 and 1910, and their ratio to the population, is given in the following comparative statement. The figures for cases disposed of summarily show the number of persons proceeded against in such cases; those for cases not disposed of summarily have reference to the number of crimes committed.

The rates per 10,000 of the population estimated to the middle of the respective years for each of the 6 classes of indictable offences are shown for each of the ten years 1900-1909 in the table which follows, also the annual average rate for each class of offence for the decade, the final column giving the corresponding rates for the year 1910. This statement shows the fluctuations which have taken place during the eleven years in the proportional number of the more serious offences in Ireland, and it also shows that, measured by the number of indictable offences committed in proportion to the population, the crime rate in 1910 was practically equal to that for the preceding year, but above the average for the ten years 1900-1909. The rate for offences against the person was below the average, and above the rate for 1909. The rate for offences against property was above the average, but below the rate for 1909, and the rate for forgery and offences against the currency decreased from 0.14 to 0.10 per 10,000 in the year 1910. In Class VI. the rate was 1.38 for the year 1910, the rate for 1909 being 1.28, and the average rate 1.09—see page xi., and Table 23.

III.—There were no prosecutions under the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887, since 1903, in which year 3 such were recorded. This Act was in force during the periods 1887-92 and 1901-1910 respectively.

III.—NATURE OF CRIMES.

With regard to each of the undermentioned six classes of crime, the figures quoted are taken from the returns of cases reported to the police.

The heads under which they are grouped are as follow:—

- CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.
- CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.
- CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.
- CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.
- CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.
- CLASS VI.—OTHER OFFENCES NOT INCLUDED IN THE ABOVE CLASSES.

The total number of such crimes (indictable offences) in 1910 was 9,870, or 226 per 1,000 of the population, being 3 below the number for the preceding year, and 396 below the number for the year 1908.

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

During the year 1910 the number of offences against the person, as reported to the police, which was 526 in each of the years 1906 and 1907, in the year 1908 rose to 627. In the year 1909 the number fell to 523, and rose in the period under notice to 574.

There were 33 charges of murder (17 of persons aged above one year, and 16 of infants aged one year or under), being 4 over the aggregate number for the preceding year, and 6 above the average for the years 1905-1909. Six attempted murders were reported, as compared with 10 for the preceding year, 22 for the year 1908, and an average of 13 for the 5 years ending with 1909. The reported cases of manslaughter numbered 55, being 15 over the number for the year 1909 and also 15 over the average for the five years 1905-1909. Altogether, the cases coming under these three headings were 94 in number, being over the number in 1909 by 15.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

The number of the offences against property with violence reported to the police in 1910 was 732, being 131 under the number for the preceding year, 99 under that for the year 1908, and 78 under the average for the five years 1905-1909. The principal crimes in this class are house and shop breaking, numbering 553, burglary 128, and 33 robbery and assaults with intent to rob.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

The offences in this class, which are principally cases of larceny, form about 70 per cent. of all indictable offences reported to the police in 1910. The actual number of these offences was 7,064, being 70 under the number in the year 1909 and 329 under the number in 1908.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

III.—
Notes of
*Crimes.*Malicious injuries to property.

Cases of injuries to property, reported as malicious, numbered 852, and were 175 more than the number recorded for the preceding year, 256 over the average for the five years 1905-1909, 242 over the average for the five years 1900-1904, and 112 over the average for the five years 1895-1899. Those offences in 1910 included 212 cases of arson, 29 of setting fire to crops, plantations, &c., and 91 of killing and maiming cattle. There were 520 cases of other malicious injuries to property, as against 353 in the year 1909, and 316 in the year 1908.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

Forgery and Offences
against the Currency.

The offences in Class V. reported in the year 1910 fell from 63 in 1909 to 44 in the year under notice, the average for the five years 1905-1909 being 542; the cases of coining and uttering counterfeit coin numbered only 27, as compared with 47 in 1909.

CLASS VI.—OTHER INDICTABLE OFFENCES.

Other indictable
offences.

There were 604 indictable offences which were not included in any of the preceding groups reported during the year 1910, being 41 above the number in the year 1909. For the five years 1905-1909 the average number of such offences was 545. Among the offences, there were 338 cases of intimidation by Threatening Letters, Notices, or otherwise (showing an increase of 53 as compared with the corresponding number for the preceding year). There were 48 (a decrease of 10 as compared with the preceding year) assaults by firing shots into dwelling-houses. There were 85 attempts to commit suicide as in the year 1909. There were also 42 cases of habitual drunkards reported to the police, the number in 1909 being 51.

OFFENCES DISPOSED OF SUMMARILY.

Offences
disposed of summarily.
Table 15.

Offences disposed of summarily are classified into two groups, in Tables (A) and (B) respectively. Under head (A) some of the indictable offences, which have been discussed in the above remarks dealing with the police returns of crimes reported, will be found, namely, those in which the charges were disposed of in Courts of Summary Jurisdiction. This number in 1910 was 4,293, or 48 per cent. of the total number of indictable offences, and of these 4,293 offences, 4,082 were cases of larceny.

Section B includes all the non-indictable offences. Persons charged with such offences, in 1910, numbered 193,635,* or 443 per 1,000 of the estimated population. The rate represented by offences of this class in 1908 was 458 per 1,000, and in 1909 it was 461 per 1,000. The cases in this Section include a large number of cases partaking of a civil rather than of a criminal character, such as Education Acts, offences in relation to Highway Acts, some of the offences against the Police Regulations, Dogs, Diseases of Animals Act, Stage and Hackney Carriage Regulations, Sanitary Laws, Labour Laws, &c.

As before stated—page viii.—the number of cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct), has decreased for the whole of Ireland; nevertheless, such cases, including also cases of assaults, constituted 38.0 per cent. of the total offences committed in the year 1910, as compared with 39.2 per cent. for such offences in the year 1909. The number of ness and

and 16.

* See Note (*) on page vii.

assaults (comprising aggravated assaults, assaults on constables, and common assaults) in 1910 was 13,085, or 6.4 per cent. of all offences committed. The number of cases of drunkenness amounted to 64,322, being 31.6 per cent. of all offences committed, and 32.5 per cent. of all cases disposed of summarily. Cases of assault decreased from 14,207 in 1909, to 13,085 in 1910; the charges of drunkenness show a decrease of 4,426—from 68,748 in 1909 to 64,322 in 1910.

The cases of assault disposed of summarily, and the cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct) in 1910, compared with each of the ten years preceding, also the general average for these 10 years, are shown in the following tabular statement:—

	1900	1901	1902	1903	1904	1905	1906	1907	1908	1909	1910	Average 1900-1909	1910
Assaults, Drunkenness & Drunk and Disorderly.	19,994	18,580	23,048	17,489	16,903	26,663	18,950	14,024	14,130	14,207	13,085	18,079	13,085
	97,457	86,120	95,376	85,592	83,775	78,848	77,283	78,580	74,267	63,748	64,322	83,148	64,322

From this it appears that, both for assaults and drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct) the numbers declined since the year 1900 to the year under notice—drunkenness from 97,457 cases in 1900 to 64,322 in 1910, and assaults from 19,994 in 1900 to 13,085 in 1910, the lowest figure recorded for any single year of the series.

Among other offences which were disposed of summarily there were 26,021 by owners and drivers of carts, 15,657 cases of nuisances and obstructions, 2,850 cases of cruelty to animals, 1,426 cases of cruelty to children, 587 offences against the Game Laws, 1,453 cases of malicious damage, and 59 offences against the Vaccination Acts. Compared with the figures for the preceding year, offences by owners and drivers of carts show a decrease of 4,727, and cases of nuisances and obstructions a decrease of 977; there was an increase of 365 in cases of cruelty to animals, and an increase of 127 in cases of cruelty to children; the offences against the Game Laws diminished by 1 in 1910 as compared with 1909, and in cases of malicious damage there was a decrease of 66.

Quasi-CRIMINAL OFFENCES.

Table 17 gives the classification and number of applications under the head of quasi-criminal offences. From this table it appears that the total of applications for orders in such cases in 1910 amounted to 24,653. Of the total there were 8,367 cases relating to children, including 6,915 applications for school attendance orders, 1,108 for Industrial School orders, and 4 Probation Orders under the Children's Act, 1908 [sec. 58 (4) and 60]. Among other quasi-criminal offences are 4,068 applications for orders to find sureties to keep the peace or for good behaviour, and there were 2,480 applications under Sanitary Law, a decrease of 489 as compared with 1909, the number for which year was 20 more than in the year 1908. The number of applications as to orders relating to dogs was 8,463.

IV.—GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF CRIME.

The statement on the following page has been prepared for the purpose of ascertaining the distribution of crime throughout the County and City Districts into which Ireland is divided for criminal jurisdiction and police purposes for the years 1909 and 1910, also the increase or decrease in each district in the latter year:—

Geographical distribution of Crime in

Offences in each county
Tables 15
and 28.

Applying the number of indictable offences as the standard for the estimation of the prevalence of crime, it appears from a comparison of the figures for the county and city districts of Ireland for such offences that there was an increase in 19 districts, and a decrease in 20, and in one, Donegal, there was no change.

The increase in indictable offences ranged from 3 in Limerick county to 89 in Galway county. Between these extremes the increases were, 4 in Wicklow County and also 4 in Waterford City, 6 in Roscommon, 8 in each of Louth and Westmeath, 9 in Wexford, 10 in Limerick City, 11 in Tipperary, S.R., 13 in Longford, 14 in Meath, 15 in Kildare, 19 in Kilkenny, 20 in Clare, 24 in Cork, E.R., 28 in Mayo, 39 in Belfast City, and 47 in Londonderry City.

The counties or cities in which a decrease of indictable crime is shown are—In Dublin Metropolitan area 61, in Cork City 49, in Armagh County 34, in Waterford County 29, in Sligo 28, in Dublin County 26, in Cavan 23, in Queen's County 21, in King's County 19, in Monaghan 17, in Fermanagh 13, and the same number in Antrim, in Cork, W.R., 11, and 8 in each of Carlow and Leitrim, in Down 6, in Tipperary, N.R., 3, in each of Londonderry County and in Kerry 2, and in Tyrone one.

An increase for non-indictable offences is seen in 9 districts, and a decrease in 31.

The numbers of all forms of offences, taken collectively, show an increase in 9 districts and a decrease in 31.

The various districts are arranged from the lowest to the highest rate per 100,000 inhabitants (according to the Census of 1901) for each group, and for the total of all kinds of crime in the year 1910, in the following lists:—

From the tabular statement at the foot of this page it appears that (1) the aggregate rate for offences of all kinds, (2) the rate for all indictable offences, and (3) for all non-indictable offences in the large town districts of Ireland (viz., those which in 1901 had a population of 20,000 inhabitants or upwards) exceed the corresponding rates for all other places. For cases of drunkenness, however (which are also included in the non-indictable offences), the rate for the large town districts (130 per 1,000) is below that for the other parts of Ireland, the rate for the other parts being 14.8 per 1,000 of the census population, 1901. Both these rates compare favourably with the corresponding rates for the year 1900, when the rate for drunkenness in the large town districts was 24.5 per 1,000, and the rate for all other parts of Ireland, 21.2 per 1,000.

The rates for indictable offences in the large town districts decreased in Dublin from 8.7, in 1909, to 8.5, in 1910, per 1,000; and in Cork from 2.8 to 2.1 per 1,000; in Limerick the rate increased from 2.3 to 2.5 per 1,000; in Waterford from 2.1 to 2.3 per 1,000; in Belfast from 5.3 to 5.4 per 1,000, and in Londonderry from 2.4 to 3.6 per 1,000.

An examination of the total offences of all kinds reported in Ireland in 1910, amounting to 203,505, shows that there were 86,168, or 42.3 per cent., committed in the towns referred to in the foregoing statement, although the total population of these towns constituted only 20.7 per cent. of the population of Ireland in the year 1901. The total offences in the towns represented a ratio of 7,169 per 100,000 of the population, against 3,884 in the remainder of Ireland. The cases of drunkenness for the whole of Ireland, although having decreased by 4,426, in comparison with 1909 (as compared with a decrease of 5,519 in 1909 on the year 1906), still form nearly a third of the total amount of offences committed.

IV.—Geographical Distribution of Crime.

Distribution of crimes in counties. Comparative Table E, Parts I. and II.

In Table E, Part II, page xlv, the principal crimes (indictable offences) or groups of crimes are shown by counties for the 5 years, 1906-1910. In Table E, Part I., the counties are arranged in order for each class of crime from that where there was the least to that where there was the greatest prevalence of crime, and in columns 2-6 inclusive the counties are grouped under certain degrees of criminality. From the first column in this Part, which shows for the five years 1906-1910 the average annual number of indictable offences per 100,000 of the estimated mean population, it will be observed that the rates range from 59.65 per 100,000 in Mayo to 742.52 in Dublin.* In 3 counties and ridings the rate was under 100; in 22 it ranged between 100 and 200; and in 4—Clare (205.8), Kildare (222.5), Antrim† (386.3), and, as above stated, Dublin—it exceeded 200. The rates for "Crimes against Property," "Crimes of Violence," "Crimes against Morals" and "Suicides" are given in columns 2, 3, 4, and 6, respectively.

A comparison of the average rates represented by cases of drunkenness for the quinquennial period 1906-1910 shows that in the counties of Mayo, Meath, and Dublin (county and city) the lowest rates were recorded, and that the highest rates were for Clare County, Queen's County, Kildare, and for Limerick (county and city).

Distribution of certain crimes. Maps I., II., and III.

In considering the maps demonstrating the distribution of crimes of certain groups in Ireland it is to be noted, with reference to Map I., showing the distribution of offences against property (included in Classes II., III., IV. and V.) for the five years 1906-1910, that the average of the totals of the whole group of indictable offences amounts to 9,778, and those dealt with by Map I. to 8,655, leaving only 1,123 other cases of indictable offences other than offences against property. The corresponding figures for 1910 were—total indictable offences, 9,870, Classes I. and VI., 1,178, leaving Classes II., III., IV. and V. represented by the number 8,692. The average numbers for the two groups of crime in Class I., namely, crimes of violence against the person and crimes against morals, for the years 1906-1910, were, respectively, 429.0 and 128.2; these two groups are dealt with in Maps II. and III., thus making up the distribution of the balance of classified indictable offences not included in Map I.

Distribution of Drunkenness. Map IV., and Comparative Table E

The distribution of drunkenness is shown in Map IV. The influence of drunkenness on the statistics of crime in Ireland and its relative proportion in town and country districts has been previously mentioned. In Map IV. and its Table further details are given of drunkenness by counties during the years 1906-1910. This map is constructed from Comparative Table E, Part I., column 5, where the Irish counties, inclusive of the towns situated therein, are classified and arranged according to the prevalence of drunkenness. As stated above, the lowest rate was 901 per 100,000 of the population in the County of Mayo, and the highest was in Limerick (county and city), where the rate was 2,776.

V.—Procedure for the Punishment of Crime.

V.—PROCEDURE FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF CRIME.

The Police, who act as public prosecutors, initiate the proceedings in connection with most of the prosecutions for the serious offences committed in Ireland. The duties of the offices of the Crown Solicitor and the Sessional Crown Solicitor are now amalgamated and performed by a Crown Solicitor in the following Counties:—Carlow, Cavan, Down, Dublin, Galway, Kerry, Kildare, Kilkenny, Leitrim, Limerick (County and City), Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Monaghan, Queen's County, Roscommon, Sligo, Tipperary, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford and Wicklow. During the year 1905 the office of Sessional Crown Solicitor for Antrim and Belfast was added to the duties performed by the Crown Solicitor, and in Cork (County and City) a change was also made, the Crown Solicitorship being divided into two appointments, one for the East Riding and one for the West Riding. No change of offices has as yet taken place in the remaining Counties, Crown business at Assizes or Quarter Sessions being discharged by Crown or Sessional Crown Solicitors, respectively.

* Including Dublin City.

† Including Belfast City.

From Table 10 it appears that there was not any district in Ireland under proclamation under the provisions of the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887, on the 31st December, 1910. In Table 11 it may be seen that on the 27th August, 1907, the following Counties were proclaimed under § Wm. IV., cap. 13, sec. 13:—Clare, Galway, Longford, and Roscommon, and to these was added on the 12th June, 1908, the County of Sligo.

The criminal proceedings at Assizes and Quarter Sessions are supplied in Tables 1-7.

Information with respect to the persons tried by jury at Assizes, at the Dublin Commission Court, and at Quarter Sessions, and the manner in which the cases were disposed of, for the year 1910, and for each of the preceding ten years is supplied in the following tabular statement:—

In Comparative Table A a synopsis for a period of twenty years of the number of persons for trial at Assizes and Quarter Sessions is supplied. This table also gives the nature of offences in each year from 1891 to 1910, and contains quinquennial averages for this period.

From the returns made by the Crown Solicitors and County and City Financial Officers of the costs of Criminal Proceedings for the year ending 31st March, 1910, it appears that the total amount for Assizes was £31,898, and for Quarter Sessions, £5,595, as compared with £29,847 and £5,147, respectively, for the year ended 31st March, 1909.

each year during the period, with the quinquennial averages, is contained therein. Notes are supplied with Tables 14 and 15 explanatory of these Tables, and consequently of Comparative Table B. APPEALS TO QUARTER SESSIONS.

Appeals to Quarter Sessions, Table 18.

The number and nature of the appeals to Quarter Sessions from convictions by Magistrates for the whole of Ireland, and also the number of appeals from convictions in each county are given in Table 18 for the year 1910. The appeals numbered 371, as against 386 in the year 1909. Of the total in 1910, 138 were affirmed, 104 were reversed, 42 were varied, and 87 were otherwise disposed of.

Persons under Police supervision, Table 24.

In Table 24 a return of persons under police supervision is given by Counties for Ireland. This Table furnishes details with respect to (a) the number of persons (161) under police supervision, (b) the disposal of persons under police supervision; and (c) the conduct of persons under police supervision.

HABITUAL CRIMINALS AT LARGE.

Habitual Criminals at large, Table 26.

It appears from Table 26 that the number of habitual criminals at large in Ireland in 1910 was 746. The total includes 513 thieves, 69 receivers, and 164 persons otherwise habitually engaged in crime.

PERSONS IN CONFINEMENT.

Persons in Confinement. Admissions to places of detention, Tables 32, 45, 46, 48, 49, 51 and 56.

The admissions to places of detention of persons committed in the year 1910 under the various methods of procedure for the punishment or the prevention of crime is shown as follows:—

ADMISSIONS TO PLACES OF DETENTION.	Males and Boys.	Women and Girls.	Total.
Total in all Ireland,	22,096	11,070	33,166
Into Prisons, Bridewells, and Reformatories:—

Into Lunatic Asylums (criminal and dangerous lunatics),	1,450	964	2,414
Into Industrial Schools,	577	614	1,191

From the foregoing statement it appears that there were 33,166 persons admitted to places of confinement during the year 1910, and that of these 22,096, or about two-thirds, were males, and 11,070, or about one-third, were females. Among these 33,166, there were 2,423 lunatics admitted into asylums, and 1,191 children admitted to industrial schools; so that 3,614, or more than 10 per cent. of the total admissions to places of detention, were of persons who cannot be considered as criminals. In addition to these exceptions there were 27 inebriates and 16 lunatics included among the admissions to prisons who were only temporarily detained prior to admission to Inebriate Reformatories or to Lunatic Asylums. See Table 5.

During the year 1910 the receptions of prisoners numbered 29,374, being 2,495 below the number for 1909, and 3,815 below that for 1908. Compared with 1909 the admissions of criminal and dangerous lunatics to Lunatic Asylums show a decrease of 37. The number of children admitted to Industrial Schools in 1909 was 1,276, the number being 1,330 in 1908, and in the year under notice 1,191; and the admissions to Reformatories, which were 152 in 1909, increased to 178 in 1910.

VI.—Criminals and others in confinement and beyond Criminals at large.

Persons.

The number of convicted prisoners (other than those committed for naval and military offences) committed to the local prisons, bridewells, and convict prisons during the year 1910 (see Table 37) is shown by age periods in the following tabular statement:—

Prisoners. Ages of convicted prisoners committed during 1910. Table 37.

Fifty years and under sixty,	1,789	1,149	630	6.9	6.9
Sixty years and upwards,	1,661	879	321	5.2	3.4

The above statement shows that not one girl under 16 years of age was among the 8,797 convicted females committed to prison. The number of convicted females committed to prison in the year 1910 shows a decrease of 492, as compared with that of the year 1909; the number of boys under 16 years was 4, of whom all were over 12 years of age. The total number of convicted males committed to prison was 16,727, or nearly twice the number of convicted females. A decrease of 1,642 is shown in the number of convicted males during 1910, as compared with the number in 1909. Of the males, 12.1 per cent., and of the females 9.3 per cent., were over 50 years of age. In Table 32 the number of prisoners received into each prison will be found, and in Tables 33a and 33b particulars as to the disposal of prisoners are given. Particulars as to the nature of sentences are given in Table 34, and details regarding the length of these sentences in Table 35.

A very large proportion of those admitted to prison were persons previously convicted, or who were habitual criminals. Of 25,524 convicted prisoners admitted to the local prisons, bridewells, and convict prisons during the year 1910, there were 20,777, or about 80 per cent., who had been previously convicted. Of these, 2,199 had been once previously convicted, 1,847 twice, 1,628 thrice, 1,575 four times, 1,058 five times, 3,135 six to ten times, 3,419 from eleven to twenty times, and 5,910 above twenty times. The figures for the last two periods show that there were 9,329 committals of persons, or 36.5 per cent. of the total number of convicted prisoners admitted to prison during the year, who had previously been convicted upwards of ten times, as compared with 9,907, or 35.8 per cent., in the year 1909.

Information regarding the birthplaces of those committed to prison is furnished in Table 38.

A comparison is made of the state of education of the prisoners convicted in 1910, with the state of education of persons of 12 years and upwards of the general population, as ascertained from the Irish Census returns for 1901, on the following page.

It appears from this table that, while 25.1 per cent. of convicted prisoners committed to prison in 1910 were absolutely illiterate, only 12.7 per cent. of the general population in 1901, aged 12 years and upwards, were in a similar condition as regards education. It must, however, be borne in mind that the Census figures here quoted are for the population of all ranks, and are not limited to the classes which furnish the great bulk of the prisoners.

Although previous occupations of convicted prisoners are given in Table 40, it is impossible to institute comparisons between the occupations of prisoners and those of the general population in a manner similar to that adopted above regarding education, as the classification of occupations is different in several respects from that employed by the Census Commissioners in their Report. It may, however, be gathered that, of the 25,524 prisoners convicted, 893 belonged to the domestic servant class; 12,805 to labourers, charwomen and needlewomen; 439 to the class of factory workers; 2,956 to the class of mechanics and skilled workers; 87 were foremen or overlookers of labour; 194 belonged to the class of shopmen, shopwomen, and clerks; 3,228 to the class of shopkeepers and dealers; one to professional employment; 202 to the class of sailors, marines, and soldiers; and 3,357 (or 35.2 per cent. of the 8,797 female prisoners) are classified as prostitutes. It should be borne in mind that some of the prisoners were committed to prison more than once during the year, and that the above figures denote the number of committals of convicted prisoners, and not the number of individuals committed.

The receptions into and discharges from Inebriate Reformatories of habitual drunkards are shown in Table 43, Sections A and B. From A it appears that the number of committals was 58, of males 28 and of females 30; the discharges numbered 65. Of this figure 49 were of males and 16 were of females.

A new Table, 44, in three parts, has been furnished by the Prisons Board (Ireland), giving the admissions and discharges from Clonmel Borstal Institution for the year 1910. From this Table, Part II., it appears that 51 persons who were convicted upon indictment during the year, were received for periods of detention varying from three years to twelve months; the ages on conviction, the previous convictions, and the state of education on conviction are also given in statements (b), (c) and (d), Part II. The disposition of the inmates for the year 1910 is given in Part III.

REFORMATORY SCHOOLS.

Information regarding Reformatory and Industrial Schools is given in Tables 45-50.

In the year 1910 the number of children committed to Reformatories was 178, showing an increase of 26 as compared with the committals for the preceding year. The number of boys committed in 1910 was 162, or 25 more than in the year 1909, and the number of girls 16, or one more than the number for 1909.

The Tables on pages xxi and xxii furnish information regarding juvenile criminals, male and female, under Reformatory control in the year 1910, and further details will be found in Tables 45-47.

It appears from the foregoing statement that of the 162 boys admitted to Reformatory Schools during the year 1910, 94 boys (or 58.03 per cent.) were between 14 and 16 years of age, and of the 15 girls, 11 were stated to be 14 and under 16 years of age on admission.

The state of instruction (on admission) of children committed to Reformatory Schools is shown in the following summary:—

From the above, it appears that only one of the 15 girls and only 14 of the 162 boys admitted to Reformatory Schools could read and write with moderate proficiency.

It is also seen in Table 46 that of the total of the youthful offenders committed, all had been previously convicted with the exception of 48, i.e., 33 of the boys and all the girls.

The discharges and licences from Reformatory Schools are in Table 47. From this it appears that of the total discharged (166), namely, 156 boys and 10 girls, 162 were discharged on expiry of sentence, 3 were discharged by the Chief Secretary absolutely, and one was committed to a Borstal institution.

* Under the Children's Act which came into force on April 1, 1909, youthful offenders under 12 years of age cannot be legally committed to Reformatory Schools.

It appears from the foregoing table that of a total of 166 discharges in the year 1910, there were 156 of boys and 10 of girls.

Particulars regarding the number of licences granted or revoked are shown in the following table:—

From this table it appears that, during the year 1910 there were 52 licences granted—50 to boys and 2 to girls.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

The following statement gives the state of education (on admission) of the boys and girls admitted to Industrial Schools in Ireland during the year 1910:—

	Year 1910.		Proportion per cent.
	Boys.	Girls.	Boys.	Girls.
Neither read nor write,	380	347	65.0	56.4

Read and write well,	5	15	0.9	2.4
Superior education,	—	—	—	—
Total,	577	614	100	100
	1,191

The above figures abstracted from Table 49 show that the number of children admitted to Industrial Schools in Ireland during the year 1910 was 1,191. Of the total, 577 were males and 614 were females. With reference to the observations regarding the education of children who were sent to Reformatories, it may be noted that only 0.9 per cent. of the boys and 2.5 per cent. of the girls sent to Industrial Schools could read and write well.

The following table shows the ages of the children placed in Industrial Schools in the year 1910:—

AGES OF CHILDREN.	Boys and Girls.	Boys.	Girls.	Percentage of Total.
				Boys.	Girls.
Total,	1,191	577	614	100	100

12 and under 14 years,	197	101	96	17.5	15.6

The total number of children admitted to Industrial Schools in the year 1910, namely, 1,191, was 85 under the number admitted in the year 1909. The number of girls admitted decreased from 647 in 1909 to 614 in 1910, and the number of boys declined from 629 in 1909 to 577 in 1910.

VI.—

at large.

It may be seen that 56·2 per cent. of the boys admitted during last year and 44·2 per cent. of the girls were brought under training in these schools before they had reached the age of ten years.

The numbers of discharges and licences with terms of detention actually served are returned in Table 50. The particulars regarding licences granted or revoked in the year 1910, are summarized in the following statement:—

Licences.
Table 50.

Number released on licence for first time,	359	265	94
Number released on licence after revocation of previous licence,	14	4	10
Number of licences revoked,	22	11	11

The foregoing statement shows that 359 children (265 boys and 94 girls) were released on licence for the first time; that 14 children (4 boys and 10 girls) were released on licence after revocation of previous licence, and that in 22 cases (11 of boys and 11 of girls) the licences previously granted were revoked.

The classification of admissions to Industrial Schools is given in Table 48.

CRIMINAL AND DANGEROUS LUNATICS.

The judgments or orders under which criminal and dangerous lunatics were committed to asylums in Ireland in 1910, are shown in the following summary:—

Admitted under Army Act, 1881, sec. 91,	4	0·2
Admitted under Navy Enlistment Act, 1884, sec. 3,	3	0·1

From the preceding summary it appears that the total number of criminal and dangerous lunatics who were committed to asylums during the year 1910 was 2,423; of these 2,351, or 97·0 per cent., were committed to asylums by Justices as being dangerous. Only 27 per cent. were transmitted from prisons by the Lord Lieutenant's warrant; 4, or 0·2 per cent., were committed under the Army Act, 1881, sec. 91; and 3 under the Navy Enlistment Act, 1884, sec. 3.

Tables 51, 52, and 53 give statistics as to criminal lunatics, and statistics relating to dangerous lunatics will be found in Tables 54 and 55.

Proportion of Police to

The proportion which the number of effective force of Constabulary in Ireland bears to the population (according to the Census of 1901) in the various counties, and in provincial towns with a separate Police Force is shown in Table 12. In the following counties the proportion of Police to the population, in 1901, is the lowest:—

Asttrim,	12 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Down,	12 " "
Londonderry,	12 " "
Armagh,	14 " "
Tyrone,	14 " "

In the following counties the proportion of Police is the highest:—

Galway,	48 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Clare,	43 " "
Westmeath,	37 " "
Dublin,	31 " "
Roscommon,	31 " "

Waterford,	29 " "
Limerick,	28 " "

The proportion of Police in the principal Cities and Towns is as follows:—

Belfast City Force,	30 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.	VII. Police Establish- ments.
Dublin Metropolitan Police District,	29 " " "
Londonderry,	24 " " "
Waterford,	25 " " "
Limerick,	23 " " "
Cork,	22 " " "

Exclusive of County Inspectors and District Inspectors, but including Depot and Reserve Force, the proportion of Police to the estimated population of Ireland in 1910 was 26 in every 10,000 of the people.

In the Royal Irish Constabulary, members of the different branches in the Force are selected for special duty when necessary; but in the Dublin Metropolitan Police, an entire division, consisting of 39 men (13 detective officers, 10 Constables, and 16 Sergeants), 4 Inspectors, and one Superintendent, are employed as detectives.

Detectives.

The total cost (including Appropriations in aid) of the Police Establishments in Ireland for the year ended 31st March, 1910, as compared with that for the preceding year, is shown in the following table:—

Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5.

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 96 of the Criminal Statistics for 1885, except in some few cases where subsequent enactments have made further changes necessary.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assizes or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 23 to 25 of the Tables, column 23 giving the total number of such charges, column 24 the number resulting in convictions, and column 25 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 18) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually came before the Assizes or Quarters Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 13 ("Imprisonment") does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 16 and 20 ("Fine") include all cases where payment of a fine is imposed as the sentence or part of the sentence, whether the fine is actually paid or not.

(h.) Columns 18 and 22 ("Recognizances") include cases where recognizances are required, whether with or without sureties, and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(i.) Columns 19 to 23 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence. Thus, if a person convicted of larceny is sentenced to be imprisoned and whipped, the imprisonment appears in column 13, the whipping in column 21.

§ The Officers and Constables of the G Division are employed as " Detectives."

(a) Under the Dublin Corporation Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vict. c. 384), the City boundary has been extended so as to comprise the Urban Districts of New Kilmainham, Drumcondra, Clontarf and Glasnevin. Clontarf, and certain specified portions of the County.

And under Section 41 of the same Act, the Royal Marston has been added, by Order in Council of 21st October, 1905, the Metropolitan Police District, so as to include so much of this added area as had not hitherto been comprised within each district.

(b) Exclusive of 1 Sergeant and 10 Constables employed in Government Departments and on private service with public bodies.

Notes to Tables 14, 15 16.

(a.) These Tables include only offences tried summarily. All indictable offences where the Court does not actually assume the power to determine the case summarily are excluded. Further, these Tables include only cases where the proceedings are criminal—that is, lead if successful to a conviction. There are a large number of cases which are quasi-criminal in character, but where the procedure is by complaint, leading, not to a conviction, but to the making of an order. These are provided for in a separate Table—No. 17.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in Tables 1 to 5 (see note (i) page 40).

(c.) The offences included under each of the titles of offences in Column 1 are stated on page 45 of the Criminal Statistics for the year 1895.

Notes to Table 14.

(d.) Table 14 corresponds to Tables 1, 3, and 5, and (as regards length of sentences) to Tables 2 and 4.

(e.) Column 7, "Committed to Industrial Schools," includes only those committals to Industrial Schools where an offence is charged. Other committals to Industrial Schools where the proceedings are not criminal appear in Table 17, and also in Tables 48 to 50.

(f.) Columns 10 to 16, "Imprisonment," do not include the preliminary imprisonment in Reformatory School cases, nor terms of imprisonment in default of paying fine or of finding sureties.

(g.) Column 18, "Reformatory School," contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a reformatory or not. Details as to cases actually received in reformatories are given in Table 45.

(h.) Columns 20 and 24, "Fine," include all cases where a fine is imposed, whether the fine is paid or not. The number of persons committed to prison in default of paying fines is given in Tables 34 and 35.

(i.) Columns 21 and 25, "Recognisances," include all cases where the defendant is ordered to find sureties, whether the sureties are found or not. It must be remembered, however, that the Table applies only to convictions, and that it does not include cases where a person is required to find sureties upon complaint. These cases are included in Table 17.

Note to Table 15.

(k.) This Table corresponds to Table 6.

Note to 16.

(l.) Section (A) of this Table gives the ages of all persons convicted summarily of indictable offences; section (B), however, contains only persons apprehended and convicted; persons convicted on summons have to be excluded on account of the difficulty of ascertaining their ages.

POLICE REFUGES.

Notes to Table 19.

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes known to the Police."—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes place within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a committal or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 18 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or committal for trial has preference to the other; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 4 and 12, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 5 and 13, "Tried Summarily and Discharged," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 6 and 14, "Charge proved and order made without conviction," contain cases dealt with under Sections 1 and 2 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, and cases of children charged with indictable offences committed to industrial schools or to the custody of relatives, &c.

(h.) Columns 8 and 16, "Committed for Trial and Detained," include all persons committed to prison or place of detention to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 20.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 14 (b), and, as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (c) and (d) above apply to this Table.

Notes to Table 32.

(a.) This Table gives the numbers of each class of prisoners received in each prison during the year. In the case of prisoners committed for trial, it is necessary to distinguish between those who were and those who were not previously in prison on remand; otherwise in making up the total the same person would, in many cases, count twice—as a remand prisoner and as a prisoner committed for trial. Similarly, convicted prisoners have to be divided into those who were and those who were not in detention before trial. The figures of the cases which thus appear a second or a third time are printed in italics, columns 8, 9, and 7. The total of criminal prisoners, column 10, is obtained by adding the figures in the other columns, 2, 4, 6, 8, and 9.

The Table gives only the first receptions of prisoners on remand, committed for trial, &c. When prisoners are transferred from one prison to another, they appear only in the return from the prison in which they are first received, not in that from the prison to which they are removed. Since convicts, as a rule, undergo some detention in local prisons before transfer to a convict prison, they appear as receptions only in the local prison returns.

(b.) Column 12, "Debtors," comprises all persons who are treated as debtors in prison, including bankrupts imprisoned to prevent absconding, &c.

Notes to Table 33.

Source (a).

(c.) This Table gives, in columns 2 to 9, the number of prisoners on remand who are disposed of within the year. It, therefore, includes those in prison on remand on 1st January, but not those on remand and still undisposed of on 31st December. Those who after remand are discharged appear in column 3, those convicted summarily in column 4, those committed for trial in column 5.

(d.) Similar remarks apply to columns 10 to 15. Prisoners waiting trial on 1st January are included; those waiting trial and not disposed of on 31st December are excluded.

Source (b).

(e.) This Table shows only the final disposal of each convicted prisoner released or removed during the year. Each case appears only under the prison from which the prisoner is finally discharged or removed. If a prisoner has been removed from one prison to another, his case is included in the figures for the last prison only.

Notes to Table 34.

(f.) This Table includes all cases received under sentence during the year from 1st January to 31st December, whether in prison before conviction or not.

(g.) All prisoners appear in the return from the prison in which they are first received after sentence, and not in the return for any prison to which they may be subsequently removed.

(h.) Column 5 contains only cases where a licence is forfeited on conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for an offence under section 5 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871, as amended by Section 4 of the Penal Servitude Act, 1891. Other cases of forfeiture and all cases of revocation of licence are included in column 21.

Note to Table 35.

(i.) In this Table two sentences passed at the same time and ordered to run consecutively are treated as one sentence equal in length to the two added together. If the sentences differ in character, e.g. a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, and a sentence of imprisonment without hard labour, the entry is made in the column for the severer form of punishment, i.e. in this case, imprisonment with hard labour. In the case of concurrent sentences, the longer only is given.

Note to Table 37.

(j.) Where the actual date of birth is known, the age is given for the birthday immediately preceding the date of reception in prison. In other cases the age is given as nearly as possible.

VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (3)).

Column 13.—Children, apparently under the age of 14 years, whose parents or guardians have proved to a petty sessional court that they are unable to control them, and desire them to be sent to an industrial school, understanding the results which will follow (8 Edw. VII., ch. 67, sec. 58 (4)).
